FOREWORD

Grateful acknowledgment is made to the many persons and organizations and classes at Duke Memorial Church whose participation and contributions have made this directory possible.

The Editor's especial gratitude is expressed to the members of Duke Memorial Methodist Men whose interest in this project provided the incentive for this endeavor. It should be noted here that Methodist Men also sponsored the last previous Church Directory, published in August, 1961.

The Church School classes added the encouragement needed to complete this project, and to them a hearty 'Thank You' goes out from the Committee.

In order to provide current information regarding the Church School Staff, the membership of the Official Board and its committees, and the leadership of other church organizations, which changes from year to year, a mimeographed insert comprising this information has been included with this directory. The plan now is for an insert, and supplemental listing of new church members to be issued annually to complement the printed directory which is published less frequently.

From Your Pastor

Duke Memorial Methodist Church does not belong to us. It belongs to God. That is apparent when we see how it has grown from a very meager beginning into one of the largest churches of the North Carolina Conference.

Many have come to pray, worship, and then make a dedication of life at Duke Memorial. Because so many have come our membership totals about 2,000.

We, who are here now, owe a great debt of appreciation to the past and an even greater debt of obligation to the future. Because God has been pleased to bless us, we must take hold of our privileges and opportunities and meet our responsibilities for the future.

Duke Memorial has always been a church with a great mission, a redemptive message, a genuine concern for people, and a warm fellowship. For those who love God and desire to serve Jesus Christ as Lord, Duke Memorial has a place for you, and reaches out a welcoming hand to you.

We all need one another and should stay in touch with one another. May our fellowship in Christ be deepened as we use this directory.

Duke Memorial Historical Heritage

Duke Memorial Methodist Church's earliest predecessor came into being on the first Sunday in May, 1886, when a Sunday School known as Bethany Sunday School was established. Its first quarters were in a spacious section of one of the Duke tobacco plants. There were thirty-three members, with the Rev. Amos Gregson serving as pastor in this informal location.

Soon after the organization of Bethany, B. L. Duke donated to the little congregation a lot on the corner of West Main and Gregson Streets, and on Oct. 10, 1886, a brick church 40 x 70 feet was occupied following the program which the mission from Trinity Church had begun earlier; and Bethany's name passed into history as the congregation of forty-four members formed the Main Street Methodist Church. Of that charter membership, seventeen brought their letters from Trinity Church, eighteen transferred from other churches and nine joined on profession of faith.

It is interesting to note, that as of this date, that original building on the corner ot Main and Gregson Streets still is in use, as the House of Worship for the Congregational Christian Church. The cornerstone still is there.

Bishop Charles B. Galloway conducted the dedication service for that first building for what was later to become Duke Memorial Methodist Church, April 24, 1887. When the question of indebtedness had come up, Washington Duke, rather than have the congregation canvassed, gave his check to liquidate the debt, an act characteristic of himself and other members of his family throughout their lives. Many of the church members were employees of his factory. The church expanded soundly and rapidly, and by 1889, the Sunday School had increased ten fold in membership and during that year, 138 members were added to the church roll, 109 of them by profession of faith.

B. N. Duke, recognizing the need for expansion of physical facilities, gave a 40 x 20 annex to the church. With the removal to Durham from Randolph County of Trinity College in 1892, another era of increased activity and membership was experienced as faculty and students affiliated with the church. The influx of the members from the institution, which was to become Duke University, led to the decision in 1906 to relocate the church for much needed expansion. That year, the site of the present church was purchased, and the following year, the cornerstone was laid. Services were held in the Sunday School section for a time until the Sanctuary was completed.

The change of the location brought about the change of the church name in honor of the family which had contributed magnificently to its physical expansion through the years. Bishop John C. Kilgo preached the first sermon in the Sanctuary, June 2, 1912. The church membership then stood at 709 persons, with 698 on the Sunday School rolls. The value of the church property was listed as $141,276. The parsonage was located then on the site of the present parking lot. A number of years passed before it became necessary to make further expansion. This was done during 1929-31, with the erection of the present Youth Building and the excavation of the entire basement of the main building. In 1931, at the opening of the new building, the membership had risen to 1,432, the Sunday School enrollment to 1,356, and the property valuation to $501,562.

The present church parsonage at 2000 Cedar Street was erected in 1949. In 1953, an extensive renovation program was carried out in the two existing church structures. The church was host to the N. C. Annual Conference and the parsonage debt was liquidated that year. The two buildings were air-conditioned during 1954-56, given in loving memory of Mrs. Gertrude Teer, a devoted member of the church for 32 years and of the Official Board for 14 years.

The parking lot was established in 1955. A second parsonage was purchased in 1959, and the Youth Building was renovated.

During 1961-62, a study committee evaluated the physical needs and reported the need for additional facilities in order to more adequately serve the growing membership and program of activities. In October, 1961, on the eve of the 75th Anniversary, the congregation responded to the need, and voted to proceed with plans to finance and erect a third building. A successful Building Fund Crusade, with a $450,000 goal, was subscribed during 1962. Preliminary building plans were approved Nov. 4, 1962, and ground was broken July 14, 1963. The cornerstone was laid Oct. 13, 1963. The building was consecrated Aug. 23, 1964, by Bishop Paul N. Garber. The modern, three story, air-conditioned structure was occupied Aug. 30, 1964.

As of this date, Duke Memorial Church stands on the threshold of the dedication of this magnificent complement to the facilities erected primarily by those who have gone before the present leaders of the church. Bishop Paul N. Garber will be present for the dedication, Sunday, April 17, 1966.

Duke Memorial Church, having risen to a membership of around 2,000 persons, with a Sunday School of 1026 persons, and having excellent facilities valued at more than $1,500,000; stands today looking toward a bright future while rejoicing in its grand and glorious heritage.

A PROGRAM OF CHRISTIAN GROWTH AND NURTURE

Duke Memorial Methodist Church offers to all its people and to the community opportunities that are designed to lead to an awareness of God as revealed in Jesus Christ, to respond to that love, and to abide in the eternal presence of God.

The program described herein will acquaint you with the opportunities available to our people and to others in the community who would share in our fellowship of Christian growth.

The Worship Services of the church are conducted each Sunday at eleven o'clock and seven-thirty o'clock in the sanctuary. Holy Communion is observed each month and at seasonal observances. Wednesday evening Prayer Services are held in the Bradshaw Room at seven-thirty. Nursery care is provided for pre-school children during the Morning Worship Hour.

The Church School Program of Christian Education provides classes for all ages. Regular study sessions are each Sunday morning at nine-forty-five o'clock. The Methodist Youth Fellowships, for Junior High and Senior High youth, meet each Sunday evening at five forty-five. Opportunities for further fellowship and study are planned by various groups. Family nights, Vacation Church School, and camping activities provide a variety of learning experiences. Recreational and social activities are also a part of the total program. There is a graded pre-school Week-Day Nursery and Kindergarten, and Boy and Girl Scout programs.

The Music Program contributes much to the inspirational life of the church. It includes five choirs, graded for children, youth and adults.

A Ministry of Visitation to the membership, shut-ins, and to the hospitals, as well as prospective members, is carried on by the ministers and other groups in the church. Counseling and guidance is available by the ministers and the church staff.

Service Opportunities for everyone contribute to the life and fellowship of Duke Memorial. Accepting positions of leadership, in church programs, visitation, and social service are signs of the concern of Duke Memorial for its people and those of the community.

DUKE MEMORIAL METHODIST CHURCH OFFERS THESE OPPORTUNITIES TO YOU.

Duke Memorial Church Trust Funds

and Their Use

Duke Memorial Church is the fortunate beneficiary of the generosity of a number of its early members. By their contributions the donors have provided incentive for our Church to achieve large and progressive projects. In no sense were these funds intended to relieve the membership of its stewardship responsibilities, but rather they were intended to widen opportunities for service.

Certain of the gifts made to Duke Memorial have been expendable funds for particular purposes. Other gifts have been given in perpetuity and have been invested as trust funds, the income from which benefits our Church.

The Perpetual Memorial Fund

The income earned by the investment of the principal funds is to be used for the current budget of the Church. To this fund the following amounts were bequests:

Mr. B. N. Duke	$15,000
Mr. Angier B. Duke	10,000
Mrs. B. N. Duke	4,800
Mrs. Lucy Wilson	2,100
Total	$31,900

The Annie Roney Bequest

The will of the late Annie Roney gave to Duke Memorial Church the sum of $1,100 which is invested and the earnings used to aid the poor and sick of Durham.

The Memorial Church Fund, Inc.

This fund is much the largest of the trust funds which have been created for the benefit of Duke Memorial. The income from invested principal funds is to be used for the physical plant and parsonages of the Church. Extraordinary repairs or capital expenditures are generally the principal items covered by this fund.

The fund was created August 26, 1926. A board of trustees was set up to administer this fund. The board is composed of the Minister, the Chairman of the Board of Stewards, the Chairman of the Commission on Stewardship and Finance, the Chairman of the Board of Trustees, and five other members elected by the board on a self perpetuating basis.

To this fund the following amounts were bequests:

Mrs. B. N. Duke	$ 50,000
Mrs. B. N. Duke	50,000
Mrs. Mary Duke Biddle	50,000
Mr. C. W. Toms	5,000
Mr. W. W. Flowers	5,000
Mrs. Mary W. Stagg	5,000
Total	$165,000

These original funds have been wisely invested and as of March 31, 1965, the market value of the holdings of the fund was $831,701. As of the same date the fund had earned $432,094 since its creation and $425,842 had been spent for repairs, additions, and maintenance of the physical properties of our Church.

NOTES

Whatever your age; whatever your need; whatever your interest—Duke Memorial has a program of worship, education, fellowship and service for you! This directory is presented with the hope that it may be of inspiration and service to all concerned; as a guide in fulfilling your need and interest.

SUPPLEMENT

1966 CHURCH DIRECTORY

DUKE MEMORIAL METHODIST CHURCH

504 W. Chapel Hill Street

Durham, N. C.

This Supplement is the first of what is planned as an annual Supplement to the current Church Directory (1966). It is intended to give to the membership of the church information that changes from year to year, so that the Church Directory will remain more useful over the years. It is hoped that this Supplement will be kept with the Church Directory for the use and information of the congregation.
